This highly profitable 25-year-old tailoring, custom-fitting, and clothing Boutique business is staffed by the owner, who is highly skilled and an experienced tailor. The business proudly services Calgary and surrounding areas. It is a complete alteration and design boutique, that can customize and/or fit all your garments and linen. It has its own designs, along with accessories for a perfect look. Weddings are a special time, and they can make sure you are well-fitted and ready to look your best. The same goes for men looking for alterations for an ideal fit. This business comes with a contract from a large organization. Some work is subcontracted. The owner is willing to stay on for a limited period of time.
