Opportunity awaits at this cozy home situated on a spacious lot in Taber. The freshly painted main floor features an updated kitchen, while a recently replaced roof and new hot water tank add practical value. Outside, the large double detached garage provides excellent parking, storage and workspace. The basement was previously finished and is now ready for redevelopment, giving the next owner an opportunity to customize the space and build equity. A solid opportunity for a buyer looking for an affordable home with room to add value. Some virtual staging has been added to enhance your imagination.
